

Newsletter # 3

The Organising Committee is providing participants in the World University Golf Championship 2014 with some important information in addition to the facts already communicated.

1. Arrival

Delegations travelling by car or bus will go directly to the Grand Hôtel du Golf & Palace in Crans-Montana. Delegations arriving at Geneva airport by plane must provide their date and time of arrival as well as their flight number. They will be met at the airport exit and taken by bus to Crans-Montana (two-hour drive).

2. Welcome and Accreditation Office

The Welcome and Accreditation Office as well as a desk for the cash payment of registration fees will be set up in the lobby of the Grand Hôtel du Golf & Palace where most participants are staying.

3. Access to the club house and driving range

Tournament participants can walk from their hotel to the clubhouse (five-minute walk). From the club house, a shuttle runs to the driving range continuously starting at 6:00 AM.

4. Practice day

The official practice day is Monday, June 23, 2014. No start list will be established for the practice sessions. Tournament participants can sign up at their convenience on a list available at the Welcome and Accreditation Office.

5. Meals

Lunch is served in the Sporting Club House restaurant from 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Breakfast and dinner are served in the hotels where the participants are staying.

6. Antidoping control

The World University Golf Championship 2014 is subject to FISU Anti-Doping Regulations, which are printed in full on the www.wucgolf2014.com website. Participants can visit www.antidoping.ch to learn how the controls are carried out.

7. Ceremonies

The opening ceremony will take place on the grounds of the Grand Hôtel Golf & Palace on the edge of the Hole 17 fairway, on Sunday June 22, 2014 at 7:00 PM. The awards and closing ceremony will be held in the same location immediately following the end of the tournament on June 27, 2014.

The organising committee is pleased to welcome all the World University Golf Championship 2014 participants to Crans-Montana.
