

Ethics Charter

Respect

The spirit of the World University Championship promotes respect for oneself, for others and for the rules, as well as mutual understanding, fair play and responsible behaviour towards the environment.

Impartiality

Participants take part in the World University Championship without discrimination of any kind as to race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

Integrity

The World University Championship supports the fight against doping, addiction awareness efforts and the promotion of health.
